She was born 1782 in Hivdigarth, Mid Yell, Shetland, and died 18 May 1870 in Vatsetter, East Yell, Shetland.

Notes for Gilbert Basil Williamson:

Crofter, shepherd, church official (sexton), seaman both in the Royal Navy (probably the Napoleonic Wars) and the Merchant Navy. At the time of their marriage in 1807, Gilbert Basil was residing at Gardie, and Elizabeth Arthur at Linkhouse. At time of 1841 census "Basiel Williamson", a crofter, and family, including Elizabeth, William age 25, Catherine age 15, Ursula age 12, Gilbert age 10, Barbara age 20, Margaret Arthur age 55, and Margaret Williamson age 40. Ten years later William Williamson, age 39, farmer and shoe maker, born Mid Yell, Gardie and wife Barbara, age 32, born Mid Yell, Kirkabister were residing at Number 10 Lower Gardie. Living at 11 Lower Gardie was Basil Williamson, farmer and Church officer, born Mid Yell, Utrabister, and wife Elizabeth, born Mid Yell, Hivdigarth - both age 70. At the time of his death in 1860, Basil Williamson was living at Number 9 Gardie. It is odd that only one of Gilbert Basil's children were recorded in the baptismal register for Mid Yell. On 10 March 1829, Gilbert, the son of Basil Mathewson (arrow upwards) or Williamson and Elizabeth Arthur of Gardie. Apparently the surname Williamson was still somewhat tentative during this time of switching over from the patronymic naming system.

More About Gilbert Basil Williamson:

Burial: Mid Yell Cemetery, Shetland

Notes for Elizabeth Arthur:

After the death of her husband, Elizabeth went to live with her daughter Catherine and family. During the 1861 census she was residing with the Petries at #4, Reafirth. Here it was also noted that she was 75, a wool spinner, and the widow of a farmer and fisherman. She likely remained with daughter Catherine and family until her death. At the time of the 1881 census, Catherine and William Petrie and family were residing at 4 Vatsetter, East Yell, suggesting that they moved there prior to 1870 since this is the location where Elizabeth died in 1870.

Children of Gilbert Williamson and Elizabeth Arthur are:

- 78 i. James⁷ Williamson, born in Gardie, Mid Yell, Shetland.
- + 79 ii. Janet Williamson, born 1810 in Gardie, Mid Yell, Shetland; died Bef. 1881.
- 80 iii. William Williamson, born 1812 in Gardie, Mid Yell, Shetland. He married Barbara Coumts 08 Dec 1840; born 1819 in Kirkabister, Mid Yell, Shetland.

Notes for William Williamson:

William and Barbara are residing with his parents in Gardie at the time of the 1841 census. In the 1851 census The couple, childless, were residing at Number 10 Lower Gardie, between sister Janet and family at Number 9 Lower Gardie, his parents at Number 11 Lower Gardie, and his sister Catherine and family at Number 12 Lower Gardie. At the time William was a farmer and shoemaker with 1 merk of land.
